

Invitation

Welcome everyone. We pray you will be strengthened by your visit with the Brighton Church of Christ. You are not just our guest, but you are welcome and wanted right here. Join our family of imperfect people perfected in by the blood of Jesus. Restrooms are located across the foyer near the front of the auditorium on the upper floor. If you need assistance in any way, ask any member for help.

Mission

The Brighton Church of Christ is a spiritual family with a focus on going to heaven. We are determined to honor God, to strictly follow the teachings of the New Testament, and effectively make that teaching available to the city of Brighton and the surrounding areas.

God's Word — Always Fresh, Exiting, And Worth Repeating

By Mike Riley

A Hollywood actor was once asked if he had become tired of the same old questions from his fans. His reply was, “I really haven’t, because even if it’s the thousandth time I’ve been asked a question, it’s the first time the person asking it has ever heard the answer.” And so it is with the preaching and teaching of God’s word. No matter how many times this writer preaches or teaches from the Bible, there’s always someone present who hasn’t heard it presented in exactly the same way. And there are many more individuals who have heard the material before but may have forgotten, or have stored the information in one of the filing cabinets of their mind and haven’t taken it out again recently. If we’ve never heard a point of Scripture taught before, or if we just don’t recall hearing it, it may be “old” to someone else, but it’s “new” to us.

Even though we may have read the Bible through from beginning to end several times — when we study any portion of it, we gain more knowledge of certain passages that help us to better grasp the meaning of others. Which is why we can never exhaust the study possibilities of the Scriptures.

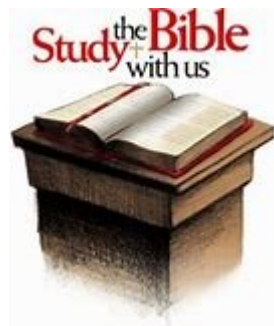

We should be a different person reading the Bible today than we were the last time we picked it up — even if that last time was as recently as yesterday. We’ve had new experiences since then — we know things now we didn't know before — we're in a position to view the inspired writings from another, different perspective. Like the mercies of God, the Scriptures are "new every morning" (Lamentations 3:22-23) — even though the Lord hasn't changed a word in twenty centuries (Hebrews 13:8).

As learned as he was, even the apostle Paul was a student of the Word to the end when he wrote in his final letter to Timothy:
"Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come — and the books, especially the parchments" (2 Timothy 4:13).

Brethren, the word of God is a living and active document (Hebrews 4:12) — no matter if it's read for the first time or the thousandth time. No matter what we're studying from God's book, we'll find in its pages answers we're seeing for the very first time.

This is what keeps God's word ever so fresh, exciting, and worth repeating over and over again. May God richly bless us as we continue to study and teach His word to others (2 Timothy 2:15; 2 Timothy 2:1-2).

News and Notes

Family Matters Bible Study

The Elders have invited Dr. Paul Renganathan, his wife and daughter from Chennai, India to join us for the Family Matters potluck Saturday evening, March 14 at 5 p.m. downstairs in the Common Room. Following the potluck, Paul will discuss with us the work including the school of preaching there. One of our members, Ruth Wilson has just returned from a two week mission trip to India, visiting the orphanage she and her husband Elmo founded, during which 68 people were baptized into Christ. The Elders appreciate your prayers, participation, and input as we consider supporting this mission work!

The food theme is American food. Child care is provided.

Don't forget to pick items for the children's home. A list is on their table.
